

Pantry Research Volunteer: Flexible

Are you passionate about making a difference in your community and supporting those in need? Join us as a Pantry Research Volunteer to help ensure that our food pantries across North County, East County, and South County are well-stocked with essential items.

About the Role: As a Pantry Research Volunteer, you will play a crucial role in researching potential donors and businesses willing to contribute on a consistent basis. This opportunity is ideal for individuals who are organized, resourceful, and passionate about driving our mission forward. Volunteers can work remotely and will receive training about our organization, Housing Hope, to fully understand our mission and needs.

Key Responsibilities:

- Research local stores, businesses, and organizations that may be willing to donate shelf-stable food, cold-weather gear, waterproof boots, and other essential items on a monthly basis.
- Identify and document contact information and potential opportunities for consistent donations.
- Collaborate with our team to share findings and recommendations.

Commitment:

- Flexible volunteer hours ranging from 2 to 10 hours per week.
- The role is suitable for 1-2 individuals working together.
- Training will be provided to familiarize you with our mission, values, and the needs of our pantries.

What You Bring:

- Strong research and organizational skills.
- Passion for supporting underserved communities.
- Ability to work independently or as part of a team.

Our Goal: We aim to secure 1-2 consistent donors for each pantry to ensure a steady supply of essential items for the individuals and families we serve. Your efforts will directly contribute to the success of this mission and make a tangible impact in our community.

How to Get Involved: If you are interested in this volunteer opportunity and want to learn more, please contact Caitlin Rose, Volunteer & Community Engagement Specialist at caitlinrose@housinghope.org or call 425-209-0934 for additional information. Together, we can make a lasting difference in the lives of those in need.

Thank you for considering this opportunity to support Housing Hope and our community!
